

I want to complain about the Sinclair networks airing a biased and slanderous commercial called "stolen honor." The public airways should allow for the balancing of opposing viewpoints and not be used solely for the benefit of those with financial interests in Washington.